

Is Our Ensured Installment Sale Right For You?

Weighing Your Options

Begin with Option #1 and work your way down through all four options and stop with the one that makes the most sense for you.

Option #1: All Cash Sale

Pro – Receive payment in one lump sum
Con – Not tax deferred

..... Continue to Option #2 if you want to defer your taxes

Option #2: 1031 Exchange

Pro – Tax deferred
Con – You must acquire new property in turn

..... Continue to Option #3 if you do not want to acquire new property

Option #3: Installment Sale

Pros – Tax deferred, no need for new property
Con – You are at risk of default from the buyer

..... Continue to Option #4 if you want protection from buyer default, property depreciation, & property or business devaluation

Option #4: Ensured Installment Sale (Structured Sale)

Pros – Tax deferred, no continuing property or business mgmt. Headaches, no risk of getting back an undervalued or “trashed” asset, payments made by Fortune 100 “household” name insurance company in business for 75 years, the payment schedule you choose...
